"AND AWAY WE GO . . ."
 began a year of stimulated growth and progress for Garrett High School. Students flourished in a life of fun, academics, sports and organizations.

Growth and progress moved ahead as carpenters worked diligently to complete the addition to GHS. As the '69 year opened so did the doors to a beautiful new gymnasium, a spacious drawing shop area, health rooms and a much-needed intensive office lab.

"And away we go" through the halls of GHS amid the hustle and bustle of students reflecting spirit through smiles and laughter. "Go! Fight! Win!" leaped from the walls of the new gym as GHS fans backed the Mighty Railroaders.

As for the graduating class of 1969, "And away we go" had a special meaning." And away we go" into the unpredictable future . . .

Fran Cleland--Miss Garrett, 1968

Janet Porter--first runner-up

Rehearsing all week for the big night, ten senior girls were highlighted at the annual crowning of Miss Garrett during Garrett Sidewalk Days. The queen contestants attended a Saturday afternoon tea to begin the contest prior to the final talent and gown competition Saturday night. Girls were scored on beauty, talent, personality, poise, and intelligence. Being crowned in her highest glory, Fran Cleland was titled Miss Garrett, 1968. Janet Porter was honored as runner-up.

TOO MUCH HOMEWORK got these guys down.

Dana Heupel pumps gas for part-time job.

Keeping his Chevy running keeps Bruce Cattell busy.

Homework, Hobbies,

Dave Yarde puts tractor away after a long day's work.

Practicing for a victory occupies Jr. High boys' time after school.

cars and work take up time after school

Coin collecting is one of Don Cattell's various hobbies.

After-school fatigue is relieved as GHS students rush home to their favorite after-school activity.

Even after dropping the role as student and assuming one as a care-free teen, schedules seem to be as scurried and rushed as before. There's piles of homework that can wait until later--later, that is after the practice session for football or basketball, pending on the season, working on your coin collection, or at a part-time job at a gas station. But then, if you're the studious type, maybe you'll go right home from school to study--if you ever get your car running to get home.

"Some day I'll have to clean this locker out!", says senior Larry Booker.

Seniors Candy Hoeffel and Rex Carper take advantage of the library facilities.

Students become adjusted to Whether running to be first in the lunch line, going to frenzied football games and dances, or taking "pop quizzes", GHS students adjourn from summer fun to the never-dull daily routine of school. Schedules are made both during and after school for jam-packed moments borne into memories.

Relaxing during the noon meal are seniors Dana Heupel, Janet Porter, Ruth Ann Grawcock, and Mike Hervey.

day by day routine

"Show me how Wise you really are", says Mr. Capin to Leslie Wise, sophomore.

As seasons change

Karen, He I hope you're having fun. I finally got my license and now I <sup>buggins</sup> buzz around town on my little motorcycle with Muek on behind. I wish ya luck in everything you're doing and with the boys. I hope you're having a real neat time and cont. Once again Good Luck to my friend!

Brownie must have a good heater!

so do activities

Winter offers time for thought for Nancy McKee.

After all the leaves have fallen and snow blankets the ground around GHS, things change right along with the season.

Rosy cheeks, cold toes and noses, all are forgotten in the midst of the winter fun. If you're not in a snowball fight, you're trying to get your car out of a snowbank or enjoying a moment's meditation in the wonderful world of winter.

'69 year brings

Legs, legs, legs.

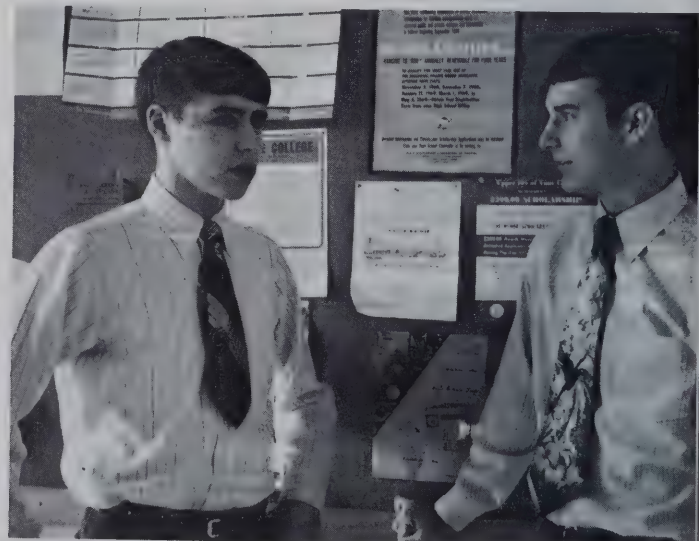

This year there's no gettin' round it. Everyone was talkin' about the wide and short of it all. You just weren't with it if you didn't have a wide tie that looked like--or better yet, was from your dad's trunk you found in the attic. And a turtleneck sweater was a 'must'. For the girls the rage was 'the shorter the skirt the better' with complimenting opaque hose. And if your skirt or jumper was leather and at the far end of those opaque hose were chunky shoes with hardware, man, you were really with it!

LATEST FAD--Sideburns and detentions.

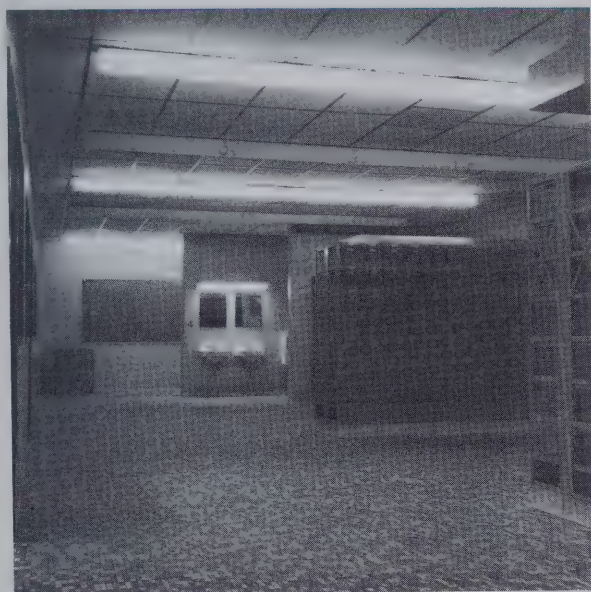

Marilyn Mavity adorns new leather attire.

"My tie's wider than your tie," says Tony Miller to Fred Peck.

changes in people and places

Spacious new locker room.

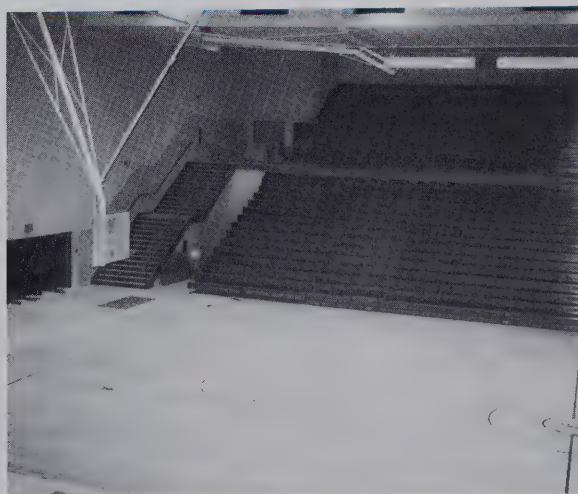

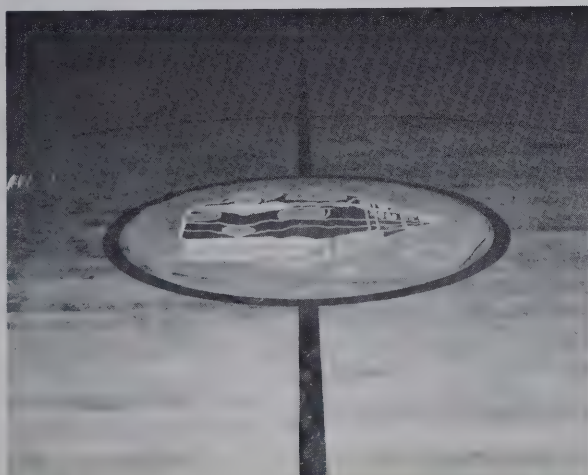

Rear entrance to new gym.

West entrance to the new addition.

Garrett students live and learn together just like one big family. And how that family grows!

January, 1969, found the elementary school linked with GHS via a new addition. "Isn't that gorgeous" echoed through the halls as students toured new classrooms, intensive office lab, health rooms, and a beautiful gigantic gym, hardly comparable to the memorable 'crackerbox'.

Garrett's beautiful new gymnasium.

Homecoming queens reign

The 1968 Football Homecoming was sponsored for the fifth consecutive time by the Girls Pep Club.

Football players nominated two girls from each class as queen candidates with the student body voting for the contestant of their choice for the final tally.

Junior, Barbara Moran, escorted by John Ellis, was crowned by last year's queen, Ruth Ann Grawcock, senior, during half-time of the West Noble game.

1969 BASKETBALL HOMECOMING QUEEN, Karen Finn, and court, Linda Bartels, Sharon Kock, Candy Hoeffel, and Chris Wilcox.

Presenting the queen with her flowers and crown were presidents of Pep Club, Don Lampe and Becky Bloom.

in height of glory

Homecoming '69 was completed by the crowning of senior Karen Finn during half-time of the Hamilton game.

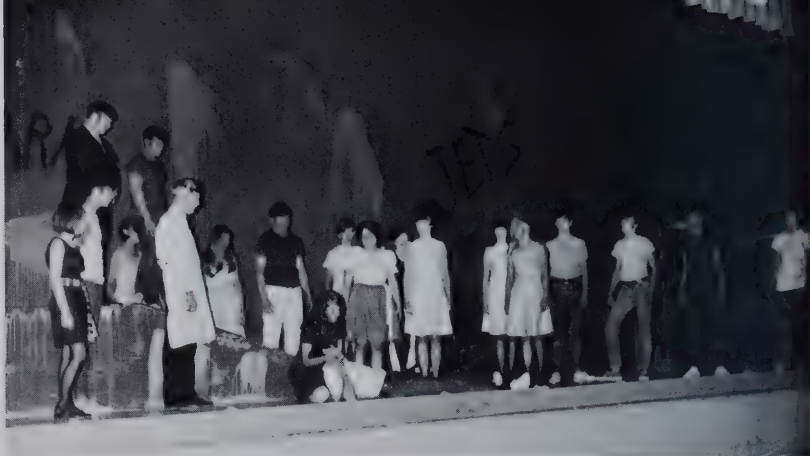

Five senior girls were nominated by the varsity basketball players with the student body voting for their favored candidate and thus electing the queen with the final tally.

Flowers and the royal crown were presented to the queen by presidents of the Pep Clubs, Don Lampe and Becky Bloom.

ACADEMICS

Mr. Charles Puff
Indiana State B.S.
Superintendent

Progressing order in administration headed by Superintendent, Mr. Charles Puff, the Garrett School system has encountered many improvements. The halls of Garrett High were expanded to include a new shop area and adjoining classrooms as well as the long awaited gymnasium in honor of Paul J. Bateman.

Office administration at work

Mr. Robert Wainscott, Principal of GHS opened this years' administration by re-scheduling the school day for all students in the junior high. Coping with the modern trend of student rivalry, Mr. Wainscott assisted in the modification of school dress and hair regulations, an important issue that concerned administration, faculty, and students.

Foreign Language Dept.

Latin students enrich their culture by attending various conventions held at I.U.

Promoting better understanding and communication, Spanish and Latin are offered for GHS students. The basic fundamentals of learning the language and culture of other peoples as well as the customs and history of other lands are taught.

Fine Arts Department

Mr. Larry Brandt
Eastern Illinois U.B.S.
Indiana State M.S.

Many students express themselves in the fine arts department through singing, playing a musical instrument, and creative art classes. Garrett was proud to have a dance band plus the high school band which was enjoyed at every game.

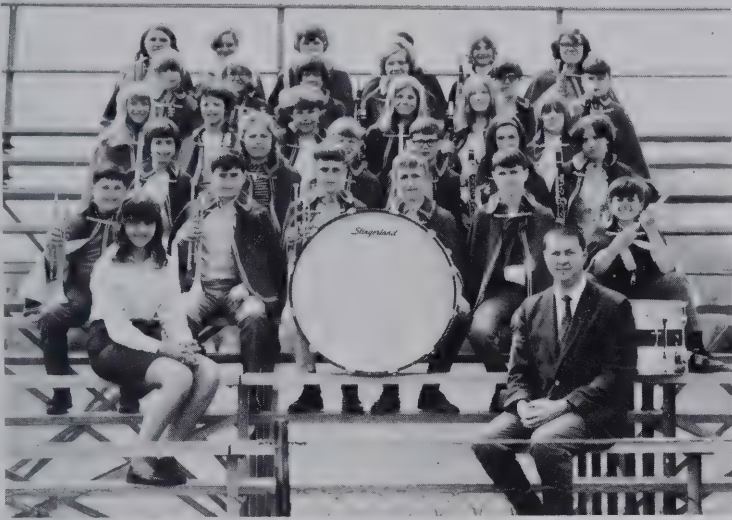

Our new chorus teacher, Miss Turner, was in charge of directing junior and senior high ensemble.

Mr. Hutton stressed the value of using self expression in the student's art work.

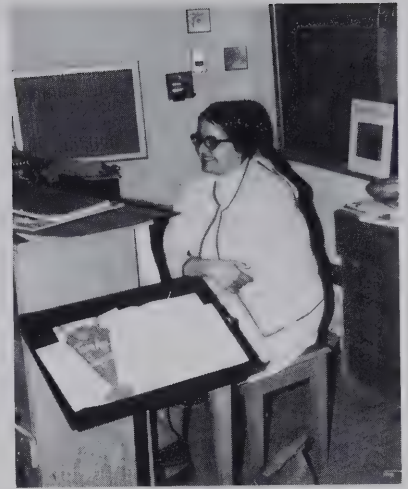

The Garrett High School Band provides much spirit around the halls of G.H.S.

The junior high band shows pride in its ability.

GAA

Kathy Steigmeyer performs her many talents on the parallel bars.

Forty-two girls participated in such sports as basketball and volleyball as members of GAA.

The spring banquet was held in May for the awarding of outstanding sportsmans. Sponsor, Miss Crowe.

The pep club raises a lot of "WHOOPEE" to show that they're backing our team one-hundred per cent.

The girls pep club, sponsored by Miss Crowe and Miss Lotz, created new and better spirit among Garrett fans this year.

New yells were learned, pep sessions were organized, and victory lines were made to send our teams to victory.

Guiding the club for two as president, Sharon Kock built the organization up to be the most enthusiastic and worthwhile club of G.H.S.

Red vests and polka dot hats were worn by Boys Pep Club members displaying their tremendous spirit. This year the club added great backing to the basketball team and created some pretty good yells that no one will ever forget.

Pep Club

The officers for Boys Pep Club for the '68-'69 school year were Steve Saffen, reporter; Dana Heupel, treasurer; Steve Short, secretary; Don Lampe, president; and Rex Carper, vice-president.

Leading the Pep Club throughout the 68-69 year were Sharon Kock, president; Becky Bloom, vice-president; Sarah Haynes, secretary; and Franny Cleland, treasurer.

After a rugged battle beginning with the Bellmont Braves, the G-Men fought their way through a discouraging season. Fast-paced, blocked kicks, near miracles, and see-saw battles composed games supervised by coaches Hutton and Moree.

With a strong, swift nucleus, we are looking forward to the '69-'70 campaign.

Dan Myers contemplates victory before dressing for a varsity game.

Tony Janueski goes high for a tip in a reserve game.

Lacking the height we've been used to for many seasons, the G-Men pulled through with a 14 and 9 record. With seven returning lettermen, Garrett was on its way to another Holiday Tourney trophy.

The spirit and scoring that won our games was centered around Tony Miller, guard, who led the NEIC scoring with 225 points in eight games and was also named to the first string of the All-Conference team. Also providing security that backed the team were Ralph Imbody, Larry Booker, Dave Isenbarger, Don Cattell, and Freshman Jeff Stroman.

Ralph Imbody gets a piece of the net after the Holiday Tourney victory.

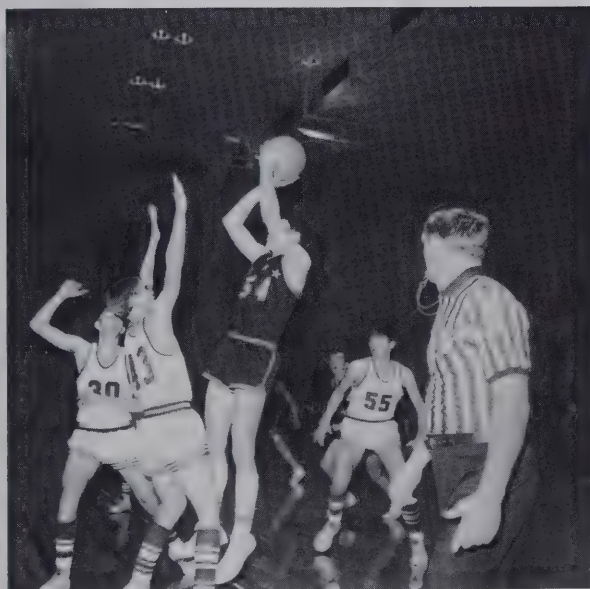

Carol takes her turn in cutting the net.

The reserve and Freshmen teams excited the Garrett fans this year with their hot shooting and great teamwork.

LEADERS OF '69

OFFICERS OF THE SENIOR CLASS: Secretary, Carol McIntosh; President, Dave Gilliland; Vice-President, Denny Davis; Corr.-Secretary, Bob Novy and Treasurer, Karen Finn.

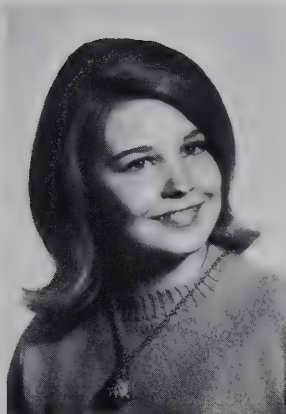

First to enter the new addition at GHS, first to wear the classy round-rings, and first to graduate in the Paul J. Bateman Memorial Cymnasium, reflects the initiative of the class of '69. The spirited members compose a new generation not only of short skirts and long sideburns but also of prosperous, intelligent young ladies and men.

As 'Frosh' the '69 seniors began their journey onto graduation. A mixed routine consisting of activities and sports began the fast-four years. "Love Is Blue", the theme of the annual Junior-Senior banquet stirs memories as the class members review the past years. Achievements as "The Miracle Worker" portray class talent in the field of dramatics. New roads to fun and excitement were discovered and paths to the future were laid during the final lap of their journey. On to college and into the various facets of life they will go, reaching for success.

Karen,
To a real sweet girl I like alot. Have fun in everything you do. Connie

Karen

To a real neat smart & <sup>very</sup> nice girl Good Luck all the time.

Stan '72"

Karen
You're a swell girl. Good Luck always. Cathy C.
70

Karen-

You are really the greatest & I sure do miss you. Hope you're having a wonderful time & working hard like usual.

P.S. Be with good with those Netherland
boys!
Remember all the fun as Blue & officers (HA) & slumber parties. Best of Luck always Love ya,
Linda

Karen -
 To one of my favorite friends who chickened out + left us to do the banquet alone. Good Luck where ever you are.

Ravioli
 Les.

Karen.
 To the sweetest
 girl in our class.
 The hall without you.
 strange hope you're having fun. Time and again.
 Bucky

-Karen -
 the you are lucky. But if anyone dreamt it you did. I wish you the best of luck with your new family.
 We miss you
 a lot.
 Annette
